VOLUME 58 FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER 2024 ISSUE 11

Fentanyl Overdoses become #1 cause of death among US adults ages 18-45.

When the history of the fentanyl crisis is written, 2023 may be remembered as the year Americans woke up to an unprecedented threat scouring communities. Fentanyl is one of the cheapest and most potential drugs that has hit our communities. For the first time in U.S. history, fatal overdoses peaked above 112,000 deaths with our younger population being hit the hardest. Fentanyl has by far surpassed every previous drug epidemic, from crack cocaine in the 1980s to the prescription opioid crisis of the 2000s. Fentanyl is 50 to 100 times more potent than morphine. It quickly enters the brain, producing an extreme and euphoric “high,” but can cause breathing to stop completely, leading to death. Today, it’s been found that drugs like cocaine, THC, ecstasy, methamphetamines have all been laced with Fentanyl, users don’t even know what they are consuming until it’s too late. Let’s prevent this from happening in our homes to our loved ones. Prevention is the best way to start fighting this war against drugs by testing our employees, family, and friends. We currently offer multiple drug test panels that include fentanyl testing at all 6 of our locations listed below.
